

Officelam

Desktop Pouch Laminator

The Officelam is perfect for day to day use in the office or school and with proven reliability, it is an excellent machine that can be operated by the least experienced of users. It's compact and stylish design suits the modern day office environment proving a valuable addition for those wishing to protect and enhance their documentation.

The Officelam Desktop Pouch Laminator is ideal for most types of laminating tasks, including posters, graphics and visuals of all kind.

Specifications

|                      |   |
|----------------------|---|
| Laminating Width     | up to 320mm                                 |
| Speed                | 41cm/min                                    |
| Power Supply         | 1.4 Amps                                    |
| Laminating Thickness | up to 360 $\mu$(180 $\mu$ + 180 $\mu$ ) |
| Dimensions           | 102 x 179 x 495mm                           |
| Weight               | 4.6kg                                       |

Features

Four roller heat plate technology for consistent temperatures and processing.

Accepts documentation up to 360 microns.

Constant roller pressure helps eliminate bubbles.

Designed for carrier free operation.

Document Pouches

Payne also offer a high quality range of crystal clear laminating pouches for document sizes ranging from A7 to A2.

Suitable for use with the Officelam (and other good quality pouch laminators), Payne's gloss pouches all have round corners and are packed in convenient quantities. Payne also produce a number of specialist and ID pouches, to suit the vast majority of needs.

▲ Simple use

▲ Accurate temperature control and tracking